Hi Folks
Here is the 1948
MOUNTAINEER

Alma Mater

In a rose-tinted valley encircled by hills,
Resting deep in a land that is blest,
Where the warm golden sunlight brings concord and peace,
Lies the school that our hearts all love best,

And amidst those green hills in that valley of gold,
Shall our praises to her ever rise,
Till the mountains and hill-sides her honors set forth
And re-echo her name to the skies.

Chorus:
Then hurrah for our colors, our flag, and our school,
Hurrah for our classmates so dear,
Hurrah for our teachers so kind and so true,
For the Board of Trustees give a cheer.

LACENIA FRANKLIN

Class Poem

As parting time is drawing nigh,
We think of all the years gone by,
Of joys and sorrows shared as one,
And of delight in things well done.

We'll miss the walls of our dear school,
We'll ne'er forget the friends so true,
Nor teachers sharing joys and fears,
And struggling with us through the years.

Our high school days are at an end,
But, oh, to live them once again,
Those times when trouble was not known,
And lines of grief were never shown.

Although we all shall soon be gone
To do the work of life's unknown,
We'll help to make a better land,
While doing as Christ did command.

Last Will and Testament

We, the seniors of 1948, arriving at our journey's end, do hereby bequeath certain of our treasured possessions to the classes which succeed us, in order that these possessions shall be perpetuated within the walls of our beloved Waynesville High.

Therefore, we make known unto all whom it may concern, this, our last will and testament: Item I—To the Junior Class:

Juniors, we leave to you our most prized possessions. We hope that you will cherish and keep them dear to your hearts—our boys who are coming back next year.

Item II—To the rest of the students:

We leave an ample supply of useless radiators, broken windows, and rat-infested lockers.

Item III—Miss Jackson's Modern Problems class wishes to encourage you cold juniors to take the said subject, not mentioning the rising of temperature.

Norma Jane Burgin and Kenneth Gaddis leave their neat way of leaving at the end of fifth period to any junior who can get by with it.

Dick Powers leaves his way with the women to Bill Owens.

Janie Franklin leaves her "gumchewing" ability to Patsy Rogers.

Wilbur Owen and Billy Norman leave their shyness to Sally Mitchell and Lard Mehaffey.

Jack Noland leaves his cute smile to Jack Kelly.

Ruth Inman leaves her sweet disposition to Mary Nell Bryson.

Carol Underwood leaves his "hot" trumpet to George Garrett.

Nina McClure and Bob York leave their senior romance to Alice Marie Burgin and Don Wisenhunt.

Ervin Shook leaves his star position on the football squad to Howard Liner.

Jackie Moody leaves her cute clothes to Dot Norris.

Dan Watkins, our class grumbler, leaves that ability to some dissatisfied person.

Mary Lou Messer and Owen Franklin leave their marriage license to Deryl Davis and Mildred Medford.

Debrayda Moore and Freda Jaynes leave their well-trod paths from the office to some girls who want the experience of doing good deeds.

Katherine Hill leaves her Christmas engagement to some junior who will undoubtedly do the same next year.

Tom Miller and Ed Rhodes leave their perfect attendance and outstanding grades in modern problems to Luther Shaw and Harold Garland.

Betty Deal, Jessie Dotson, and Bonnie Hogue leave their quiet, reserved attitudes and efficiency to some rowdy underclassmen.

R. G. Coffee leaves his place in Spanish to Joe Michal.

Juanita Jaynes and Helen Caldwell leave their artist's traits to Faye Buchanan and Betty Jo Grant.

Betty Sutton and Doris Hannah leave their shorthand books to some stenographical-minded juniors.

Flora Hyatt leaves her neatness to Geneva Palmer.

"Hoot" Gibson leaves his "pass snatching" ability to Bud Sheehan.

Dot Cogdill leaves her red hair to Nancy Floyd.

Gerald Breece leaves his talent (piano playing ,that is) to Charles Alley.

Frances Leatherwood leaves that Scarlett O'Hara trait of waiting until tomorrow to worry about things to Jean Duckett.

Betty Sawyer leaves her majorette position. Carry on, girls.

We, the Seniors, hoping that you will be greatly benefited by these gifts, do hereunto set our bond and fix our seal this twenty-ninth day of January, 1948.

Bernice Smathers,
Testator.

BAKERY

Class Prophecy

Close your eyes
And come with me
Upon a flight
Of fantasy.

As we fly,
The years speed away.
We're in the future
Where tomorrow is today.

We gaze about us
With surprise,
As the changed scenes
Meet our eyes.

We pick up a paper
To see what Fate
Had in store
For the class of '48.

NEWS OF THE DAY:

Flash! Jack Ammons is the new President of the United States. The Vice-President is Ted White. Gordon Pruett said, "I will help them all I can." Katie Lee Palmer and Betty Deitz, the political leaders, said Jack would make a fine President.

Juanita Evans and Betty Deal are clothes designers in London.

John Luther and Fred Palmer have discovered gold in Western North Carolina. They are now multi-millionaires.

Dot Gaddis will return from Europe to open up her own law practice. She has been studying criminal law in Paris.

Lois Ann Tittle and Lois Miller have just bought a dry-goods store. They will be assisted by Debrayda Moore and Freda Jaynes.

Richard Howell, Silas Carver, Mark Hollingsworth, and Max Allison have an "industrial shop" of their very own.

Wallace Carswell and Charlie Burgin are the big executives of Frog Level. They plan to buy property from wealthy Frances Leatherwood.

Madeline Mills is the new secretary at Ingram's studio. Her helpers are Bonnie Hogue and Nancy Knight.

SPORTS:

Dan Watkins has been selected to play in the Rose Bowl game New Year's Day.

Willie Mae McCracken, Mary Ruth Wyatt, and Ruth Phillips are on the Girl's all-star basketball team. Peggy Ensley had to quit because of her husband.

SOCIETY:

June and Tom Ray celebrated their wedding anniversary at their home. Their guests were Dr. Wayne Ferguson and his nurse, Elsie Glavich; Professor Rolf and his Latin student, Ted Hundley. They were honored to have the big movie executive, Jerry Liner, and the famous producer, Roy Howell. Lowry Gaddy showed the pictures he took in Africa and "The Voice". Paul Franklin sang a few solos.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of lovely Powers' model, Dot Calhoun, to a wealthy New York banker. They will be married soon.

Anna Jo Miller and Marie Strange have given a party for Dolores Underwood at the Transcontinental, owned by Frank Poteat. Many guests attended: the noted physicist, Lester Messer; Eunice Palmer, Marian Frady and Doris Bolin, who have just finished their new book of world travels, also attended.

WANT ADS:

Wanted: Man, preferably tall and dark for assistant in a new beauty parlor. Contact Rosalie McClure or Dot Cogdill.

Wanted: Male and female help. We pay the highest salaries in town. Apply Eugenia Boone's Apple Orchard.

Wanted: Airplane for flight around the world. See T. T. Muse and Robert Fugate.

That's the way
The Prophecy reads,
But what it will be
May be different, indeed.

The future is fashioned
From the life we live,
So a job well done
Will happiness give.

The 1948 Mountaineer

To Our Classmates:

On behalf of the members of the staff, I should like to take this chance to express gratitude for the opportunity of working on this book, which you entrusted to us. It is an experience that we shall always remember and cherish.

Our thanks go to Mr. Bowles and his secretary, Mrs. L. M. Richeson, whose cooperation and wonderful suggestions helped at all times. Also, I should like to give credit to Bob York and his assistants, who did such a good job of raising the larger part of the finances for our year book, and to Miss Terrell, our faculty adviser, for her assistance.

I hope that you will always cherish this book, which has afforded me an experience I shall never forget.

I thank you.

Home Economics

The Home Economics Department is a scene of busy activity. The girls, under the guidance of Mrs. Marjorie Buchanan, learn how to sew, cook, and attain all the qualities for keeping the American home.

Commercial Department

The student body should be proud of the record being made by our Commercial Department. Many students are taking advantage of these classes under the supervision of Mrs. Hugh Sloan.

Shop

The Industrial Shop trains boys from the age of 16 until graduation. The pupils learn to construct furniture, to upholster, and to make use of other arts and crafts.

Future Farmers of America

The Future Farmers of America, under the able leadership of John Nesbitt, have done more than an ample job. Made up of 40 boys, the organization carries out many helpful activities.

Future Homemakers of America

The Future Homemakers of America was organized to better the girl's ability to make an American Home.

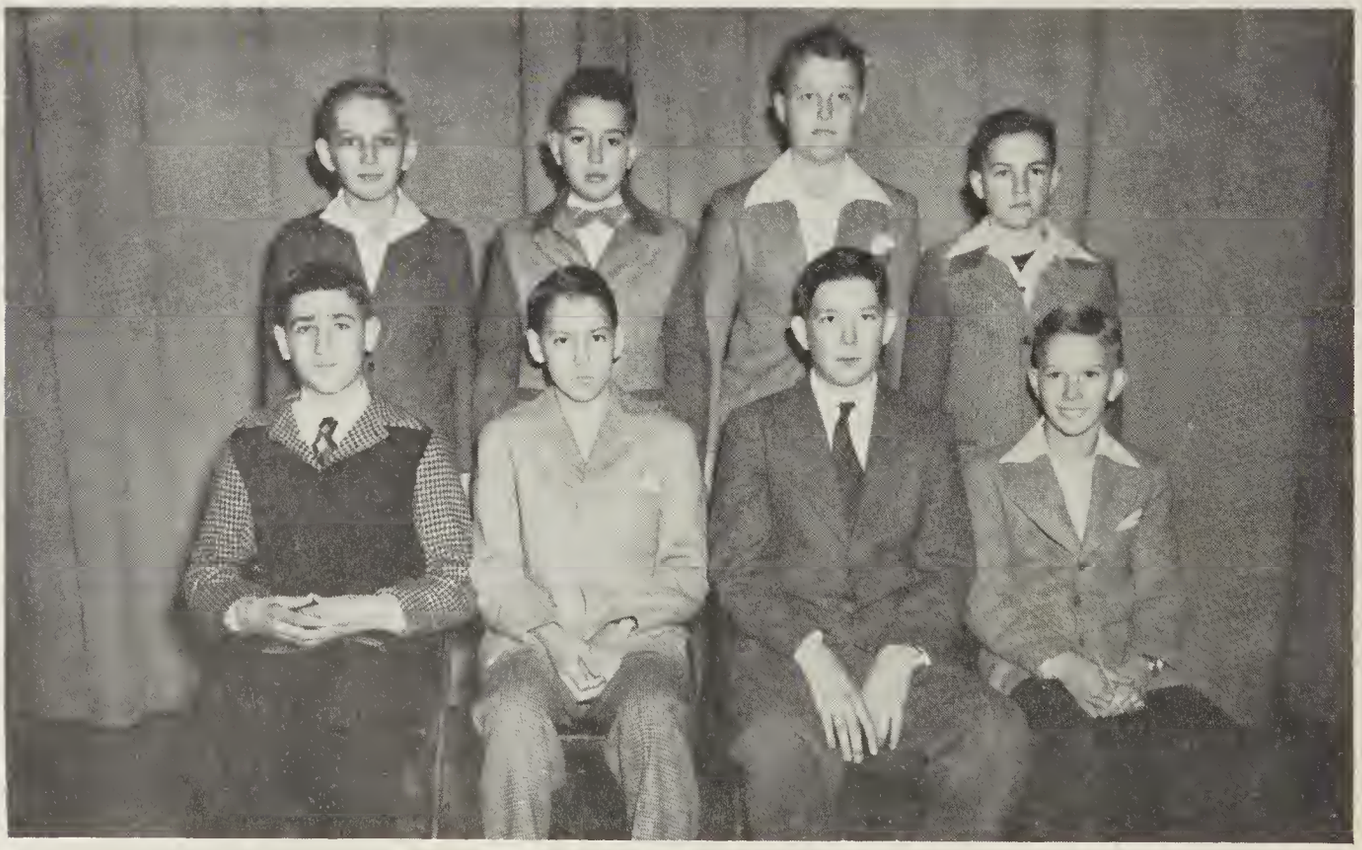
Library

The library is the source of practically all information anyone would care to find. The shelves are well stocked and provide ample material for students.

The U. D. C. Speaking Contest

The U. D. C. speaking contest is an annual event that develops the speaking ability of students in the Junior High. It has been taking place for the last eight years and was won this year by Danny McClure of the eighth grade.



Womans Club Reading Contest

For a good many years, the Waynesville Woman's Club has sponsored a reading contest for girls in the grades nine through twelve. The contest takes place in the spring, and is one of the outstanding events in our school year.

The contestants give readings of their own choice, either prose or poetry, the only barring rule being that the piece must be a literary selection.

D. A. R. Declamation Contest

The first D. A. R. Boy's Declamation contest was held on February 22, 1909, celebrating Washington's birthday. The purpose of the contest is to interest young men in public speaking and famous patriotic men. A gold medal, designed by a National D. A. R. Committee, is first prize; a second prize of a silver dollar has been given since the twenty-fifth anniversary. This is the 40th year of the annual contest.

The nice old lady smiled at Dot Gaddis, who had been left in charge of the cake shop.

"Don't you sometimes feel tempted to eat one of the cream puffs, my dear?" she said.

Dot was quite shocked. "Of course not," she replied. "That would be stealing. I only lick them."

Miss Ponder had just finished telling a story of a lamb that had strayed from the flock and been eaten by a fox.

"You see," she said, "had the lamb been obedient and stayed in the flock, it would not have been eaten by the wolf, would it?"

"No, Ma'am," answered Dan. "It would have been eaten by us."

A spry old gentleman was smoking in the bus. The conductor said to him: "Don't you see that sign that says 'No smoking allowed'?"

"Of course I do," replied the old man, "but how can you expect me to observe all your rules? There's another one that says 'Wear Spiral Corsets'."
